

AIRSPACE INFRINGEMENTS AWARENESS COURSE

Programme

	Timings	Event	Content
1	0930 - 1000	Registration	Complete sign-in sheet, identity check and issue of course materials
2	1000 - 1245	Introduction	Aim of Course - Why we are here; establish the tone of the day (not to preach - to provide information - to understand the issue - to share experience in an interactive environment - to develop a preventative strategy)
3	(there will be a 15 minute break during the morning)	The Consequences of Infringements	Understanding the bubble, separation criteria and the concomitant effect on other traffic in mitigation of an airspace infringement The effects of an infringements on others, i.e. people, businesses and the environment A controller's perspective of airspace infringement If all barriers fail → Mid-Air Collision
5		Causes of Infringements	Statistical Introduction Case Histories (incl examples drawn from the participants) Summary of the key factors derived from the analysis of infringement data Human Factors as a key reason for infringements (Distraction, Task Saturation, Loss of Situational Awareness)
6		Break	Lunch
7	1245 - 1315	Preventing Infringements	Threat and Error Management focussed on: Pre-flight Planning including a practical exercise; Developing an Effective Cockpit Work Cycle; Navigation incl use of GPS and Airspace Alerting Devices; Weather; Managing distraction and The use of Listening Squawks What to do if you infringe airspace
8		Airspace Quiz	Questions about UK airspace posed in a friendly and participative atmosphere to confirm knowledge of airspace and airspace reservations, chart markings and the like. (Conducted anonymously with audience response tool - no pass mark)
9		A Personal Strategy for avoiding Airspace Infringements	Facilitated session drawing on the whole day relating information to individual circumstances and importance. Conducted in pairs with a personal call to action noted down in the course workbook.
10		Summary of the Day	Short summary of the main points of the day. Class evaluation, issue of Course Completion Certificates/Record of Achievement Course Disperses